

SigEp

Nebraska Alpha

James Moore and Richard Brenning Scholarships

Application Deadline: May 1

Description: The James Moore and Richard Brenning Scholarships are awarded in honor of two brothers who died in the service of our country. Big Jim and Rich were “Balanced Men” who lived SigEp’s Cardinal Principles of Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love. These scholarships will be awarded to members who live the Cardinal Principles with strong preference given to members with past or present military service.

Selection: Candidates must complete the scholarship application, be in good standing at Nebraska Alpha, be returning to the University of Nebraska – Lincoln and live in the chapter house in the academic year in which the scholarship is awarded. Selection is by a committee consisting of: Chapter Counselor, Faculty Fellow(s), Resident Scholar, AVC President and one “At Large” committee member.

Timing: Application must be made during the Spring semester prior to May1 for award via the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid the Fall semester.

Application:

1. Contact and Other Data Required:

Full Name (First, Middle, Last):
Class Status:
UNL ID Number:
Plan to live in the Chapter House next year?
Phone:	E-Mail Address:
Cumulative GPA:	Major:

2. In 500 words or less, describe why living the Cardinal Principles of Sigma Phi Epsilon is as important today as it was over a century ago.

Please attach documents and return application to current Chapter President at 601 North 16th Street, Lincoln, NE 68508. Should you have any questions, please contact current Chapter President or Alumni President (Kyle Arganbright), kyle.arganbright@gmail.com.